SCHOOL SPEECH COMPETITION Thursday 13th August

Next Thursday afternoon, in our Library, we have our annual School Speech Competition. New Entrant to Y2 children present Poems and the Y3 and above children give Speeches.

This year we are very fortunate to have Poppy Kilworth and Henry Chapman as judges. Poppy and Henry are the Head Girl & Boy respectively, at Ashburton College this year. Henry was a pupil at Fairton School.

The winners from each section then go on to represent Fairton School at the North East Ashburton Small School's Competition, which will be held at the Fairton Hall this year, on Thursday 20th August.

HERITAGE NOTES

Houses/"Hotels"

One was built in 1898 at the corner of Works Rd and Fairfield Rd. It was apparently replaced in the mid 1950s by a smaller brick building.

The second was built on the eastern corner of Fairfield Road and Fairfield Ave in 1899. It was a large two storey building. John and Charlotte Huffam let the house and Charlotte ran the boarding side of things. Mrs Huffan's Boarding House was where Fairton School started in 1901. On March 9th 1907 the house was destroyed by fire with the 24 occupants narrowly escaping.
