NZ Army Military Exercise

On Monday morning the Fairton School students were lucky enough to watch a NZ Army Military Exercise (Urban Warrior) in the Talley's Ashburton paddock right by our school. We saw the helicopters flying in and soldiers moving about with weapons. Some excitement to start the week off!

Fairton Community Native Planting area/reserve

There is a piece of land behind our school that Talley's has given over to be used as an area for our community to have as a native planting reserve. This is a joint enterprise with:

- The Kanuka Trust – who will provide the plantings and lessons for our children.
- Talley's – who have generously given the land and will provide ongoing maintenance.
- Our school – who will help set it up and be able to have this area as a natural learning resource and recreation venue.
- Our community – who will be able to access this area and enjoy the native flora and fauna.

Planting Day

Friday 1st October – 9.30am-2pm – Onsite
 Community members welcome to help with the planting

■ Editor

Business Profile: Hunts Auto Parts

When did your business start? Around 2007.

How many people do you have working in your business? Two fulltime and one part timer.

Do you have any other branches? No.

What are the things your business does? We buy cars to dismantle and sell parts NZ wide. Sometimes the car may be too good to part out, so we will repair and get back on the road. Once the cars are finished with and all the working parts are sold, we recycle all the different metals out of them and sell them to metal buyers.

What is the best thing about your business? Working from home so I get to see my family.
