From the Principal's desk

Assembly: Today at our school Assembly we recognised some excellent achievements of our tamariki. Our PIE awards and certificates were given to Faith Colgan, Evie Mcilwaine, Rose Bramley and Phillip Sullivan. Well done!

Daffodil Day: This Friday 25th August we are hosting a mufti day. Please dress up in yellow and bring a gold coin donation for the Cancer Society.

Staveley Ice skating trip: We will be going to the Staveley Ice rink next Wednesday 30th August. We will be leaving school at 9.15am and returning at 2.45pm. Please can all children wear sport shoes and dress warm (jackets, beanies and gloves). If you would like to parent help on this trip please contact the school office.

Health units: A big thank you to Constable Sean for taking the Keeping Ourselves Safe unit. We have had a mini unit on caring for our teeth. Children will have come home with a toothbrush and toothpaste.

Hockey Skills sessions: These sessions will continue to run for the next three Thursdays. Please can all children wear sports shoes and bring along their mouth guards.

Swim week: This is coming up in week 9 of this term from the 11th -15th September.

Jude Irwin ☺

Speech Competition & Assembly

Today we held our Annual Speech Competition. We had five children from Room One presenting their Poems and eight children from Room Two presenting their speeches. All of the tamariki did a fantastic job as it is not easy speaking in front of a crowd. You all did us proud.

The results were:

Year 1 and 2 Poems

Cameron Ewings – 1st
 Poppy Colgan – 2nd
 Indica-Jane Canterbury – 3rd

Year 3 and 4 Speeches

Addison Page – 1st
 Evie Mcilwaine – 2nd
 Kourtney Haskett – 3rd

Year 5 & 6 Speeches

Dakota Woods – 1st
 Harrison Nevin- Smith – 2nd

Addison will now go on to represent Fairton School at the Cluster Speech finals at Mt Hutt College on Monday 28th August at 7pm as she met the zone standards.
